to corporal punishment and all other forms of brutality in a school like that. She was asked by Attorney Harris if she forms of brutality in a school like that. She was asked by Attorney Harris if she did not know that many of the inmates were bardened criminals. She objected to the term, and said no boy should be considered a hardened criminal. She said no boy should be subjected to solitary confinement. She objected to visiting the school on show day, when all were on access parade. Asked if she had any suggestion to make, she said, "Yes. Get a man who is educated for this kind of work for the head of your school—a broad man with a good heart. The officers and teachers should be ladies and gentlemen."

men."

She was asked by Joseph if she had any other opinion to give. "I'll give my opinion of the board of trustees." she retorted, but the presiding officer backed out. She said she did not regret her part in the investigation, and considered she was performing an important duty for the club women and the citizens of the state.

Dr. G. A. R. Heywood, president of the Weber club, has announced as a committee on a site for the state capitol: H. E. Peery, chairman; J. A. H.weil, J. C. Nye, A. F. Parker and Will'un. Glasmann. It is not intimated in Mr. Heywood's communication on the subject that this committee is to raise the $55,99.
